

Love • Respect • Shine

At Cheadle Catholic Infant School we love and respect each other.
We love to learn and let our inner light shine brightly in all that we do.

Dear parents/carers,

During the month of May we are remembering how special Mary is and we honour her as the Queen of May. Mary said 'yes' to God and always did as she was told even when she was frightened.

We continue to ask Mary to join her prayers with ours every day.

It was wonderful to see so many Cheadle Catholic children at St Ann's Church on Saturday to take part in the Crowning of Our Lady.

You were all beautifully behaved and were a real credit to us all.

'And Mary said, "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.'

Luke 1:38

Coronation Competition Winners

Huge congratulations to Harrison and Sophia in Year 2 who took part in the Handforth Dean Coronation Art Competition and won! Both of their designs have been turned into floor tiles and are currently being displayed at Handforth Dean. Well done to Harrison and Sophia..... we love your designs and we are very proud of you both.

Nursery 1 Sports Day

Full Time Nursery and Nursery 1 completed their first ever Sports Day this week. They took part in bean bag races, a hoop obstacle course and an egg and spoon race. The children were fantastic sports- What superstars!

Welly Sheds:

You will have no doubt noticed our fantastic welly sheds on our EYFS and KS1 playgrounds. Mr Roberts has worked extremely hard to design and make them for our children. This means that children can now leave their wellies in school and our Forest School can be accessed on any day for outdoor learning.

A huge thankyou to Mrs Roberts for his hard work and to Mr Tidman from Howdens who has kindly supplied us with wood for the shelving inside the sheds.

Curriculum News:
